

I understand that the FCC is considering preventing XM Radio or other entities that provide such service from providing Local Weather and Local Traffic forecasts, as well as other locally oriented programming. I wish you would not do this.

This would severely limit my choice in my market, where no other practical comparable services exist or are planned.